

NEW YORK, SUNDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1921.

Copyright, 1921, Sun-Herald Corporation.

The President, too busy for golf, rides whenever the weather permits through the extensive park which stretches south of the White House. International.

Above—An exciting moment in the Army-Navy game at the Polo Grounds when Barchet, the Navy back, made a six yard gain. Underwood & Underwood.

At right—The first down in the Army-Navy game, won by the Navy 7-0. Central News.

Miss Marion Riordan placing a wreath on the memorial unveiled last week in Battery Park in honor of the war dead from New York's lower East Side. Underwood & Underwood.

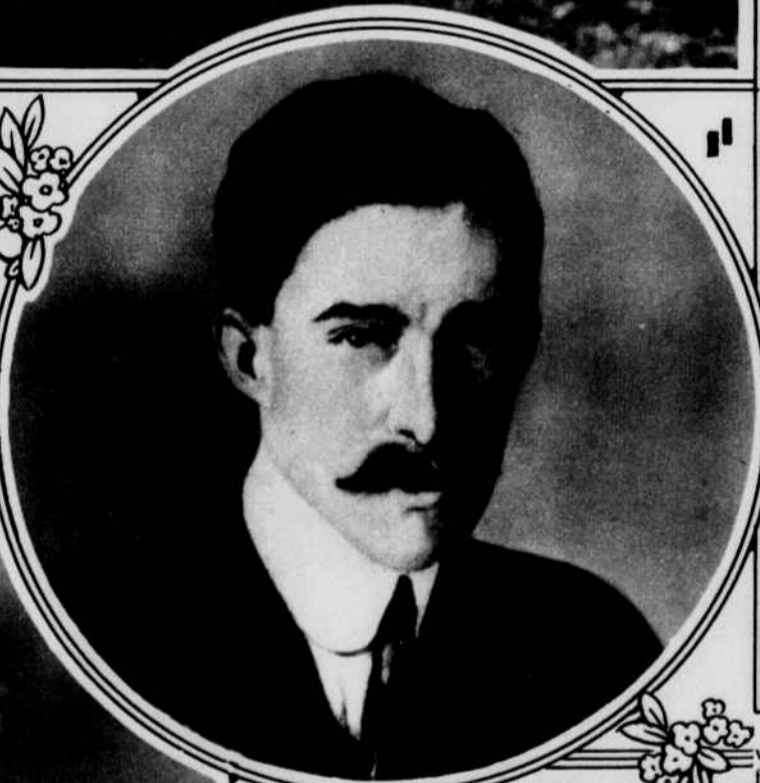

Among the members of the Women's Police Reserve who braved the rain and did efficient service in guarding school crossings was Capt. Anna Wademan, who is shown on duty on First avenue. Paul Thompson.

Princess Mary, daughter of Britain's royal house, whose engagement to Viscount Lascelles has been announced.

Above in circle—A recent photograph of Viscount Lascelles, son of the Earl of Harewood, who is to marry Princess Mary.

Japan's new ruler is Crown Prince Hirohito, who as Regent succeeds Emperor Yoshihito, enfeebled by illness. Underwood & Underwood.

Crowds have besieged New York's Hospital for Joint Diseases since Dr. Lorenz, the famous Viennese surgeon, began his operations there. The photograph shows application cards being handed out through a window. Underwood & Underwood.